SECTION ONE :

A- READING AND INTERPRETING : (8pts)

On the western side of Britain lies one of the most beautiful parts of the British Islands: The principality of Wales .The welsh mountains are of a rare beauty. The valleys are green and fertile. In central and North Wales, farming is the main occupation but the valleys are greatly industrialized.

Wales is very popular for holidays. Every year, thousands of people spend their summer far from town life. Those who like climbing and walking go to the Welsh mountains.

Wales is called” the land of songs”. The Welsh people are famous for their beautiful voices. There are festivals all around Wales and the Welsh girls participate in these festivals with their national dress: a tall black hat, a red shirt and a white apron. Singers, dancers, musicians and poets come from many parts of the world often wearing colorful national costumes.
